Old Timer's Group

By Rebecca Phelps

The Old Timer's met on August 1st at Steve Brady's shop in Vidor. Eleven members worked on using the new vacuum table to laminate portable router table tops, drawing and cutting out hobby horse heads, building jigs for the drill press, making a "Sam" elevator [the previously described Phelps geriatric equalizer has now reached new heights with the Sam elevator!], and drawing and cutting out more puzzles. Those attending, and having a very good time, included: Lyman Frugia, Ivan Test, Earl Rutherford, David and Lolly Mayer, Dean Partridge, Sam Tobey, Red Dressel, Steve Brady, and John and Rebecca Phelps. A lunch of ham and turkey sandwiches, chips, and homemade chocolate chip cookies was served at noon. Since this meeting took place in August, the next meeting will be Sept. 26.

Show and Tells

Raymond Fontenote used his router and special bits to construct this dished out bowl.

Jerry Shivers brought photos of a China cabinet that he built to match an existing one. He used quarter-sawn white oak.

Dean Partridge shows a toy baby bed that will be part of our toy project this year.

Rebecca Phelps brought her new Micro-Mark miniature bandsaw.

Ivan Test won the door prize, $25 since he didn't have a show and tell item.

Program

Dee Gipson, a professional carving teacher and carver with years of experience, presented a program. He explained the various steps in getting from the rough-out blank to the finished piece.

Dee starts students out with a blank, and from there he teaches them to add details like muscle definition, ears, eyes, etc. Then the finer details like hair are finished with a wood burner.

Dee teaches carving at his studio or at carving shows in four different categories: caricatures, animals, Santas, and ornaments. If you would like to contact Dee about carving lessons, his contact information is:

Much thanks to Dee for his great presentation!

Tool Review

Troy Gallier brought the instruction manual for and talked about a 1953 bandsaw that had a tilting arbor instead of the tilting table found on most saws today.
